Arborjet “Taking Root” College Scholarship Program Deadline is Approaching

Applications from Graduating High School Seniors Must Be Postmarked by June 30, 2017

Woburn, MA, June 19, 2017 – Arborjet reminds graduating high school seniors that the deadline for its annual “Taking Root” College Scholarship Program is just around the corner, and all applications must be postmarked by June 30, 2017. A leader in the care of America’s urban and natural forests, Arborjet is accepting applications for its annual program from students who plan to pursue a career in arboriculture or a related field.

“The interest we have seen from students applying for our scholarship program so far this year has been terrific,” said Russ Davis, President and COO of Arborjet. “Our industry offers tremendous opportunities for young people seeking to turn their ingenuity and passion for trees, plants and our environment into a career in the exciting field of arboriculture. We encourage other young students to take advantage of this opportunity and apply while they still can to support their education and future in this growing industry.”
